Receive State Homemaker Degrees

The Appomattox Senior Chapter Future Homemakers of America had six girls which are recipients of the State Homemaker Degree which is the top award given to individual members by the Virginia Association, Future Homemakers of America.

These girls were recognized for their outstanding contributions to their home and family, to their local, county, and State FHA organization, and their school and community. They have exemplified a keen interest in the welfare of their families and the improving of home and family living.

Janice Giles, a sophomore at Appomattox County High School, worked toward improving community living for her project. Her goals were to improve personal attitudes, to get involved with children, and to help with community projects. She has contributed much of her time and worked very hard to accomplish her degree. Janice is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Giles.

Sue Perdue a junior at Appomattox County High School received her State Degree by accomplishing the following goals. 1) To get along better with her parents 2) To improve her relationships with her brother. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perdue.

Cindy Guill, a senior at Appomattox County High School, has also earned her State Degree. To earn her degree Cindy chose three major goals; to develop individual characteristics, community involvement and to publicize the Homemaking program. She is the daughter of Mrs. Hazel Guill.

Robin Tomlin worked on various activities to fulfill the goals she set for her state degree. Her goals were to improve personal attitudes, to understand small children better and to improve community living. For her in depth project she chose to improve family and community relations. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt Tomlin.

Kay Chenault a senior at Appomattox County High School accomplished the following goals: To help the school and community to understand the homemaking program and to become involved in community activities. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Chenault.

Teresa Cyrus, a sophomore at Appomattox County High School, has earned her State Degree by accomplishing the following goals 1.) To improve personal attitudes 2) To see the needs of children today 3) To improve community living. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cyrus.
